CHALLENGES

- ◆ Employees stretching their work hours resulting in work life imbalance.
- ◆ Lack of insight into employee activities & their usage of work time.
- ◆ Inconsistency in compliance by employees to expected Logged Hours.

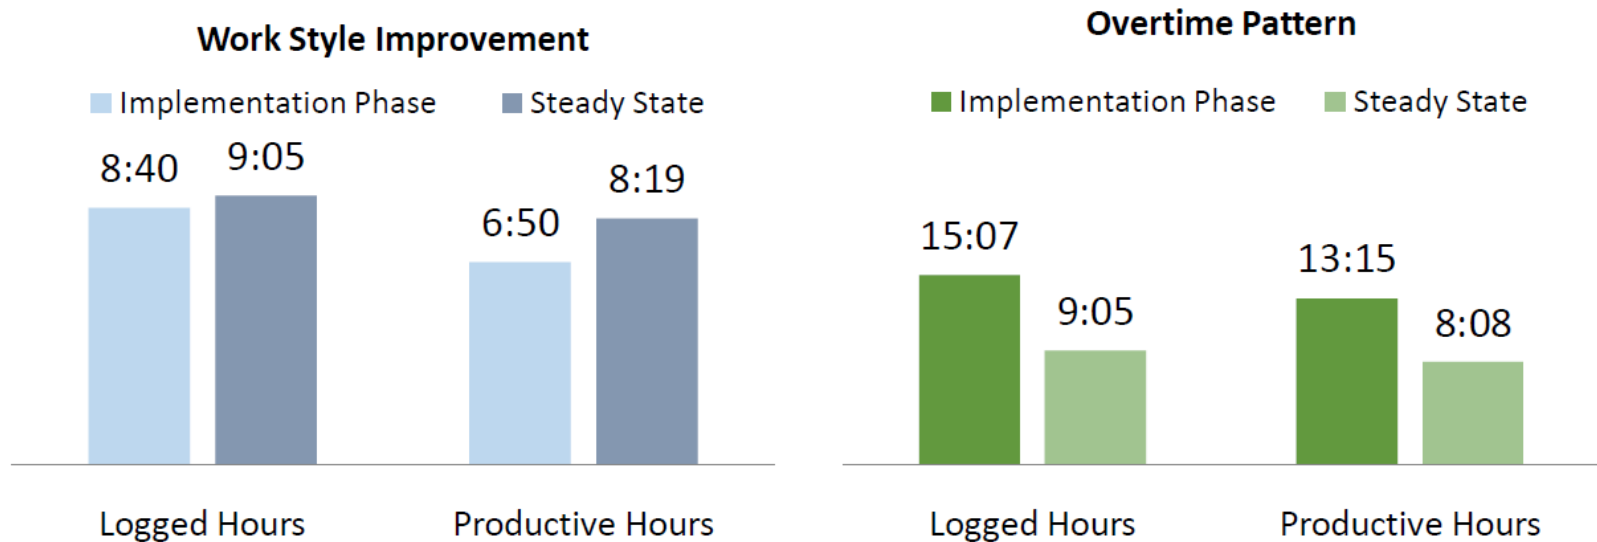

SOLUTION

Acusis was facing challenges in having authentic and factual data w.r.t. their employees' compliance with organization norms related to Logged Hours and Productive Hours.

To obtain greater insight into work time of employees, Acusis deployed ProHance for their employee spread across geographical locations in India. This provided complete workplace transparency with analytics to Team Manager as well as individual employees on their work styles.

- ◆ Once ProHance was deployed, it was observed that a set of employees were regularly putting in extra work hours. Necessary steps were taken for these employees to bring about a healthier work life balance in their work style (See Exhibit below for Overtime pattern).
- ◆ ProHance captures the logged hours of an employee based on the actual login and logout times on the system and automatically tracks how well employees utilize time in office with respect to their defined work profile. ProHance intuitive dashboards and reports provide insight into compliance by employees to office norms related to work time.

RESULTS

- ◆ Healthier Work Life Balance for employees.
- ◆ Increased clarity to employees on their Productive Time and hence better compliance.
- ◆ Greater consistency by employees in complying with logged hours.
- ◆ Improvement in Productive time.
